

TALENTED For Generations Program

Talented for Generations Program

This program aims at preparing an individual to develop a generational mindset about his or her talent.

Objectives of the program

- To make individual understand 12 things in talent
- To enhance talent utilization aiming at individual and generation mark
- To promote talents as the engine of individuals and generational success
- To provide different psychological skills to people on how to improve their talents
- To perceive talents as their work
- To help the talented individual and community perceive talents as source of employment.

Tools expected to be used

- Psycho-education
- Different models
- Psychological instruments
- Projectors
- Discussions
- Movies
- Generational psychological motivation touch design
- Case studies
- Counselling
- Psychotherapies

Services to be provided

- Self-concept and other related to talent
- 12 things in talent
- Coaching
- Career guidance and counselling
- Psychotherapies basically on the issue concerning talent identification, development and utilization
- Generational mindset development concerning talent utilisation aiming at individual and generational welfare
- Talents as the engine of success of any generation

